

Bilateral S&T cooperation agreements signed by Hungary

Hungary has entered into bilateral international science and technology agreement with the following countries and institutions:

Inter-institutional relationships:	The legal grounds of S&T cooperation
Azerbaijan	Agreement between the National Innovation Office (NIO), Budapest, Hungary and the National Academy of Sciences of Azerbaijan, Baku, Azerbaijan in 2014
Ecuador	Hungarian-Ecuadorian bilateral inter-institutional S&T agreement
Belarus	Memorandum of understanding between the National Innovation Office, Budapest, Hungary and the National Science and Technology Commission, Minsk, Belarus on science, technology and innovation cooperation in 2013
Iran	Memorandum of understanding between the National Research, Development and Innovation Office, Budapest, Hungary and the Science and Technology Vice-Presidency of the Islamic Republic of Iran in Tehran on science and technology cooperation in 2016
Kazakhstan	Agreement between the National Innovation Office, Budapest, Hungary and the JSC National Science and Technology Holding “Parasat”, Astana, Republic of Kazakhstan in 2012
Republic of Korea	Agreement between the National Innovation Office of Hungary and the Korea Institute of Industrial Technology in 2014 Agreement between the National Innovation Office and the KDB Bank Europa Limited in 2014 Agreement between the National Innovation Office of Hungary and the Financial Services Commission (FSC) of Korea on cooperation in technological funding in 2014
Kuwait	Memorandum of understanding on inter-institutional S&T cooperation between the National Innovation Office (NIO) and the National Technology Enterprises Company of Kuwait in 2012
Morocco	Inter-institutional bilateral S&T cooperation agreement between the National Research and Technology Office of Hungary and the National Centre for Scientific and Technical Research (CNRST) of Morocco in 2009
Saudi Arabia	Inter-institutional S&T cooperation implementation programme between the National Innovation Office (NIO) and the King Abdulaziz City for Science & Technology (KACST) in 2014
Wallonia (Belgium)	Cooperation agreement between the National Research and Technology Office of Hungary, the General Commissioner for International Relations of Belgium’s French Community (CGRI), the International Relations Division of the Walloon Region (DRI) and the National Fund for Scientific Research (FNRS) in 2005