

Support Services for Exploitation of Research Results (SSERR) for completed and ongoing research projects in the field of energy

The Directorate-General for Research and Innovation offers free of charge services for completed and ongoing research projects in the field of energy of FP7 and H2020 programme.

Project partners can request one or more services in the form of project risk analysis, exploitation strategy seminars, business plan development service, assistance for patenting, brokerage events and ad hoc assistance.

More information: <http://sserr.meta-group.com/SitePages/default.aspx>